WELL KNOWN OFFICER.

W. J. Wadlington Drops Dead While Calling on a Lady.

Wm. J. Wadlington, for many years a policeman of the city and until recently a member of the force, died very suddenly Sunday evening about seven o'clock.

Mr. Wadlington was calling upon Mrs. Mattie Boyd at the time and while waiting for Mrs. Boyd to enter the room he suddenly fell from the chair in which he was sitting and died almost immediately.

Heart disease was the probable cause.

Mr. Wadlington was 55 years old and was a widower. He leaves several children, some of them grown.

He had called upon Mrs. Boyd for the purpose of accompanying her to church, being apparently in the best of health up to the very time of his sudden death.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Carey Wallace Case Non-suited Yesterday.

The motion to transfer the Robinson damage suit against the L. C. Railroad to the Federal Court was overruled and the case will be tried here later.

The case of Carey Wallace's administrator against the L. & N. company, for $20,000 damages, which was put on trial Friday and the evidence was concluded Saturday. Yesterday on peremptory instructions from Judge Cook the case was non-suited.

Wallace was an old colored man whose head was cut off by a train at the rock quarry last June.

Decrees of divorce were granted Lewis Wagoner from Sallie Wagoner, and Mary Vaughan from Lewis Vaughan.

BLOOD POISONING.

Causes The Death of a Well Known Young Farmer.

M. Jack Evitts, a well known young farmer of the Chalybeate Springs neighborhood, died of blood poisoning Saturday night. He had been suffering from a boil on his neck for a week or more and had it lanced on Friday. Blood poisoning set up, causing his death as above stated. The interment took place at the home of his grandparents, near Gracely.

REAR END COLLISION.

Bad Wreck North of Town Sunday Morning.

Several Cars Smashed But No Lives Lost—Trains Delayed Several Hours.

What is known in railroad circles as a "rear end collision" occurred on the L. & N. near Chalybeate Springs at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning. A south-bound through freight which had stopped for repairs on the engine, was struck by another freight train, also south-bound, and the engine and three cars of the rear train were ditched. The engineer and fireman jumped and none of the train men were hurt. The caboose of the train standing still was crushed and is a complete wreck.

The engine was thrown on its side and badly damaged. The box cars which left the track were loaded with merchandise, which was strewn in every direction.

It seems that when the engine of the first train gave out a flagman was sent back to flag down the train which followed, but he was unable to get sufficiently far away from his train to stop the second section before it was too close upon the first to avoid a crash.

The loss to the railroad company will probably foot up several thousand dollars. The wreck caused a delay of twelve hours to the north bound St. Louis fast mail and the south bound passenger, due here at 5:27 p. m., was also delayed several hours before the wreck could be cleared away.

MR. NELSON DEAD.

A Venerable Veteran of the Mexican War Passes away.

Mr. Hugh Nelson died at the home of his son, Mr. M. H. Nelson, Friday, aged 81 years. He had walked into the city only a few days ago, and had been in his usual good health until he contracted pneumonia on the day of the convention and succumbed to the disease after a week's illness.

Mr. Nelson was a representative of the noted Nelson family of Virginia and was a veteran of three wars. He was in the Texas war of independence, later in the Mexican war and also in the civil war. His son was also in the Confederate army and his grandson was in the recent war with Spain.

The funeral services were held Saturday.

Mr. Nelson was a member of the Episcopal church.

RESEMBLED MENINGITIS.

But a Fall May Have Caused McKinley Everett's Death.

McKinley, the four-year-old son of Mr. J. B. Everett, of Fairview, died Sunday night after a brief illness. On Saturday the child, while playing, fell out of a chair, his head striking the floor with great force. He apparently recovered from the fall in a short while, however, and continued playing. On Friday he was taken very ill with something resembling meningitis and soon became unconscious, remaining in this condition until death came.

Mr. Everett lost his wife and a grown son a few months ago and he has the sympathy of a host of friends in his many afflictions.

LONG LIFE CLOSED.

Rev. C. C. Eager Was the Father of Dr. B. F. Eager.

Dr. B. F. Eager, of this city, has received information of the death of his father, the Rev. C. C. Eager, at Clinton, Miss., aged eighty-six years.

Five children, in addition to Dr. Eager, survive. They are Dr. J. H. Eager, of Louisville; Mrs. Trotter, wife of the Baptist pastor at Bardstown, and Mrs. Joiner, wife of the Rev. J. M. Joiner, of Trenton. One son, Dr. George B. Eager, is pastor of the First Baptist church in Montgomery, Ala., and another, Dr. E. B. Eager, is pastor of the First Baptist church in St. Louis.

...1899... BUGGY BUSINESS.

We have been at a great expense in building our new Carriage Repository in the hope of making Hopkinsville and our establishment headquarters for buggies and carriages for this part of the State. In securing the services of Mr. Bonte we have placed at the head of this department a man who stands at the front in his trade. We beg to remind those wishing special designs of Carriages Traps, &c., not usually carried in stock, that it takes some time to get these from the factory and that it will save you considerable annoyance to order now.

FORBES & BROTHER.

GENEROUS MR. LATHAM.

Donates 165 New Volumes to the Hopkinsville Library.

The Hopkinsville Library Association has received a very valuable donation from Mr. John C. Latham, of New York, in the shape of a shipment of 165 new books, ordered so as not to duplicate other volumes in the library, and properly catalogued as a supplement to the regular catalogue.

The department of fiction is represented by selected works by Louis Becke, F. T. Bullen, S. R. Crockett, Alphonse Daudet, Eugene Field, Rudyard Kipling, R. L. Stevenson and others. "History and Memories," "Travel," "Essays and Belles Lettres" and books of Reference are all well represented. The Travel books include the latest writings of Richard Harding Davis, Theodore Roosevelt and other military correspondents and heroes, giving historical sketches of the Spanish war.

Besides these new books the Library Association has purchased about 35 others, making 200 new books and increasing the library to 500 volumes.
